

St Aelred's Harrogate Parish Bulletin

4th Sunday of Ordinary Time
Psalter week 4, Pg 130

Money can build a charming house, but only love can furnish it with the feeling of home.

Duty can prepare an adequate packed lunch, but only love would decide to tuck a little love note inside.

Money can buy a television set, but love controls how much is watched and what is watched.

Obligation sends a child to bed on time, but love tucks the covers in just right and gives kisses and hugs.

Obligation can cook a meal, but love embellishes the table with flowers and candles.

Duty writes to a child who is away, but love tucks a joke or a picture or some chocolate inside.

Compulsion keeps a sparkling house, but love and prayer produce a happy family.

Duty is easily offended if it isn't appreciated, but love learns to laugh and to work for the sheer joy of doing giving and contributing.
