

“Take this cup from me.”

Jesus did not want the cup he was given. He accepted it, but he did not want it according to this plea. So why did Jesus give as he did?

Simply because God asked him to give — because God sent him to give.

What did God send you to give?

And what is it going to take for you to give it?

“You give but little when you give of your possessions. It is when you give of yourself that you truly give.” Kahlil Gibran

Maintenance of St. Aelred's property - The Parish needs a joiner or building engineer to carry out occasional small maintenance/repair jobs on the Parish buildings, doors, windows, furniture etc. The work will be paid for, and carried out at mutually convenient times. If you know someone who might be interested, could you ask him/her to contact either Deacon David (560279) or Mike McCann (886986).

Missio - Red boxes - Many thanks to all box holders and collectors for your continued support. In 2018 we raised £1,456 - well done! Boxes are being collected this month. If you have a box but no - one has collected recently, please leave it at the back of the church in the library area. Alternatively, give me a call on 07926361073 to arrange collection. Michael Gilhooly

Offertory envelopes - Most of the new boxes of envelopes have been given out. If you have not received your box or would like one please speak to or ring David Rutherford [887470] to arrange delivery.

Philip Rowe is doing the Yorkshire 3 Peaks Challenge on 15th May in aid of Worldreader, a charity that helps people all over the world learn and improve their reading skills. 24 miles and 5200ft of ascent. I won't badger anyone at the church door with a sponsor form but donations gratefully received online via <https://bit.ly/ff3peaks> Read more about Worldreader at www.worldreader.org
